

ABSTRACT

A unique composition for treatment of malignant tumors is composed of resorcinol, camphor, and sodium sulfathiazole dissolved in propylene glycol. This composition is easy to apply, and at concentrations used, causes no deleterious side effects.